met with a terrible blow from a club. Harna then drew a knife and stabbed Horas in the head, cutting through the scalp and severing the temporal arters. The noise of the conflict aroused about twenty boarders, who ran about yelling and screaming in Italian. Boras was found in the shed covered with blood and unconsclous. He was taken to the hospital, so weak from the loss of blood that his chances of recovery are slight. His assailant has not yet been captured.

Abrams Declares the Charges Are Untrue and Inspired by Jealous Associa'es.

Agent King, of the Gerry Society, was complainant in the Morrisania Police the Superintendent, because of a trifling transgression on the part of the boys, took Joseph Bernstein, ten years, into the cellar, tied his hands behind his back and beat him with a cane. He then tied the boy fast to a gas-pipe, it is alleged, and after putting Joseph Palowetsky, ten years old, and Louis Prager, of the same age, in the cellar, locked the Coor on the three boys. Freed by Another Teacher.

Their cries were heard by John Menfloza, a teacher in the institution, who liberated them. The boys then went home and told their mothers of the Accuses His Associates.

He said that the charge against him was due to the ambition of Mrs. Alex-ander, a teacher in the institution, who aspires to the dictatorship. He said that both she and Mendoza, another teacher, who originally made the charge of cruelty against him, were themselves guilty of beating some of the inmates. He said that without any provocation Mendoza severely beat Isidore Leventhal, eight, and William Koenrich, eleven years old.

Abrams asserted his deep interest the institution, and said that as a eward of his faithful service the Board Victims Caned on Their Backs of Directors had just raised his salary $100 a year.

His enemies in the institution, however, say that Abrams will be removed at the conclusion of the case in court, and that he is only holding his position pending the outcome of the trial.

Navarre Apartment.

Alexander Thomas, M. D., fifty-one years old, living in a high-class apart-ment-house at 117 West Fifty-eighth yesterday afternoon by Court Officer O'Connor, of the Tombs Court squad, on a warrant secured from Justice Mc-Mahon by Anthony Comstock and George Oram, of the Society for the Suppression of Vice.
Thomas is charged with having had in his possession and having exhibited obscene pictures.

Thomas met a man named James Anderson in Bryant Park on Saturday night, and after treating him several times to beer invited him to his apartments. There he showed him ten photographs that Comstock alleges are of a very obscene nature.

Anderson went to Comstock and told him about 1° and Comstock secured the warrant.
